How is it collected?

We collect this information via you completing our “Expression of Interest” form. This is often completed digitally, but if it is completed as a hard copy it will become digitised with the hard copy being shredded.

We categorise this data to create an attendance register of people that come to the Solidarity Soccer sessions and provide an easy to use document, especially in case of emergencies, e.g. medical contact information.

The data will be deleted every May, with everyone wanting to continue to take part in Solidarity Soccer having to complete a new form.

We will send out surveys by email asking for your feedback on the session via Survey Monkey.

We will summarise the data before deleting for funding and evaluation purposes, making sure all data is unidentifiable and anonymised. As an exception, we will keep copies of image release forms and data protection consent forms but make sure these are password protected – you can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us via the details included below within the “Data Controller” section.

Whilst trade union discounts are available via the club, we do not record trade union status for attendees of Solidarity Soccer.
